Dewan

Submitted to His Highness.

The term of special duty of Mr. R. Ranga Rao, Registrar of Co-operative Societies, in the Secretariat in connection with the introduction of the Constitutional changes, expires on the 31st instant, and the question of his future work on the termination of his special duty was considered in Council on the 15th instant when the following resolution was recorded:-

"Mr. R. Ranga Rao may be appointed Secretary to the Legislative Council and to the Representative Assembly under the Reforms Scheme, with effect from the 1st March 1924. He may also be entrusted with all work connected with the organization sanctioned for Economic Development work."

Mr. B. Nagappa, in his capacity as Local and Legislative Secretary, is expected to deal with all the work coming to the Secretariat from the Constitutional Assemblies as well as from Local Self Government institutions besides all work connected with the Law Department and Government Suits. But there is need for a separate officer who should be the Secretary to the Representative Assembly and Secretary to the Legislative Council. At present, the Assistant Secretary in the Protection Branch is the Secretary to the Legislative Council, and there is no officer designated as Secretary to the Representative Assembly. In British India, both the Provincial and the Imperial Legislative bodies have got separate secretaries of their own who do not form part of the Secretariat staff. These Secretaries are functionaries of the bodies concerned, and it is their duty to arrange all details connected with their work, the receipt, admission and printing of interpellations, resolutions and representations, the preparation of the Agenda, the reporting of the proceedings, promptly dealing with requisitions for information and other correspondence with the members. In Mysore, we have two bodies of the kind and the work requires an officer of some standing well acquainted with the constitutional position of the Representative Assembly and the Legis-

Legislative Council as well as with the standing orders and rules of procedure. The Council are of opinion that Mr. Ranga Rao would be the person most suitable for the work.

As according to His Highness' proclamation, the Economic Development work has been made a permanent adjunct of the administration, it is necessary to revive the activities in connection with this. The question is now being examined by me; in the meantime, it may be understood that in addition to the Secretaries and other staff that may have to be given to the three Central Boards, who will work under the orders of the respective Chairmen, the work of co-ordination and unification of all the activities, under the orders of the Dewan, may be entrusted to Mr. Ranga Rao in addition to his duties as Secretary to the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council. These proposals may be graciously approved.

As the inaugural meeting of the new Representative Assembly is to take place in the third week of March, it will be necessary for Mr. Ranga Rao to enter on his duties about the 1st March. It is understood that he will be prepared to take leave till then if advised to do so.

My dear Matthan,

With reference to the Notification in the Gazette announcing that the first session of the Reformed Representative Assembly will be held on the 21st March 1924, I write to inform you that the S.S.L.C. public examination is fixed for the 22nd of March, and that several of the school-buildings in Mysore, and in particular, the Collegiate High School building, will be occupied for the purpose of the Examination. As you are aware, it has been usual to commandeering the Collegiate High School building for the use of the Secretariat during the Assembly Sessions. As this will not be possible in March, I request that you will kindly direct other arrangements to be made for accommodating the offices.

Yours sincerely,

ROUTINE NOTES.

[To be used only for notes, requisitions, etc., not intended for permanent record.]

It does not seem possible to allow either the date of the meeting or the dates of the examination. The question raised here is only regarding accommodation for the office clerks and Branch Offices and one or 2 Supdts (one) who were being accommodated in the Collegiate High School. The services of many clerks and offices are not likely to be required for the Special Session. Accommodation for them have perhaps to be provided for in the Quarters ~~of~~ in tents & Blocks reserved. This is for the consideration of the Special Duty Officer who may be appointed for the work. The question does not arise to be worked up in the office Branch.

Apart from their own arrangements, some of the Heads of Depts and Dy. Comrs used to be accommodated in the New Indian Posts Qrs, Maharaja's College and Income Tax Office etc. The Govt. of the Maharajas College and Marumakkaya's School will be available during march 24 along with the Govt. High School as the Public Examinations are likely to be held in those places also.

In this Case, accommodation to the Lectl. staff will have to be found in the Lectl clerks quarters and some of the tents in the same Compound.

The Deputy Commissioners may perhaps be accommodated in the tents in the public offices Compound or in the Compound of the Govts quarters

The accommodation to R. A. members friends however some difficulty in the Maruma kkaya's school

It appeared in newspapers, it is desirable to ask Mr R. Ranga Rao to join his new appointment as Secy to the R.C. & the L.C. before 1st March as was contemplated. I understand that there is heavy work in the Revenue section which has not been assigned to Mr above & I am in addition to his other duties: and that many papers are being addressed to Mr Ranga Rao while on leave. Requests of deputy heads that the services of the L.C. in Madras may be retained as much as possible considered as the under secretaries made that Mr Ranga Rao be relieved to join on 1st Feb.

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

Submitted to His Highness.

The recommendation of the Council to appoint Mr. R. Ranga Rao as Secretary to the Legislative Council and the Representative Assembly under the Reforms Sechme with effect from the 1st March 1924 has been approved by His Highness on the 20th December last. This was communicated to Mr. Ranga Rao and as the period of his special duty expired on the 1st January 1924, he applied for and was given two months - leave. As the new Representative Assembly is to meet in the third week of March, it was originally thought that it would be quite sufficient if the office of the Secretary to the Representative Assembly was constituted by the 1st March 1924. It is now found that there is a large volume of work to be attended to in connection with the Representative Assembly, the elections and the Reforms scheme generally. As the work is of an urgent character and it is too heavy to be attended to by the existing staff of the Secretariat, which I find is unable to cope with it, I have, in anticipation of His Highness' approval, directed Mr. Ranga Rao to join duty from 1st February instead of from the 1st March as originally intended as the work has sufferred and requires immediate attention.

The action taken may be graciously approved.

Subject:—

Deputation of an officer of the Mysore Government to study the working of the Madras Legislative Council.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. Pol.732, dated the 4th February 1924, I am directed to inform you that the Madras Government will be glad to afford all necessary facilities to Mr. R. Ranga Rao, B.A., B.L., Secretary to the Mysore Representative Assembly and the Mysore Legislative Council, to study the details of the working of the Madras Legislative Council and the Legislative Secretariat when he goes over to Madras on deputation. The Madras Government add that it will be convenient if the officer arrives in Madras as soon as possible, as the Legislative Council budget meeting commences on the 4th March and it may not be quite convenient for the Secretary, Legislative Council, to devote time to the Mysore Government officer when the Council is sitting. It is requested that the date of his arrival may be intimated to this office for communication to the Government of Madras.
